

Heaven
Eternity

God the Father

Jesus said, "I am the way
the truth and the life.
No-one comes to the Father but by Me."

I read my Bible every day - Sorry No

I am a good person -
Sorry No

I have been baptized - Sorry No

My parents are Christians
Sorry No

*I go to church
every week*
Sorry No

YES

I love Jesus

I give lots of money to charities
Sorry - No

Booking for Heaven

When we apply for jobs, whatever they may be Requirements are listed for us to plainly see
Have we passed some exams? What level did attain?
Have we worked at this before? What experience did we gain?
Our routine would be decided and working hours set
Rates of pay would be included and all other conditions met

I started to think of Heaven and wondered what would be
The pass mark to reach that place that sounds so good to me
I found no exams were needed, not even an essay or two
No lessons, modules or work experience are we asked to do

My parents are both Christians, will that get me a slot?
But no, I found that does not count, not even one small jot
When I was a baby I was baptized in church and given a name
But no, I'm afraid I find that the answer is exactly the same
I have always attended church, very rarely missed a week
Yet of that lovely place called 'Heaven' this won't give one small peek

I am a generous person and give lots of my money away
I'm sure that this is pleasing to God and that I will hear Him say
"Come into Heaven, I have seen your good deeds
I have seen you helping others and answering their needs."
But no, I was flummoxed when at last I found
That God was not interested in one single pound

So what does it take to get into that place?
What on earth must I do to show God my face?
The answer is simple, my views were quite wrong
I was missing the truth that's been there all along
It is only through Jesus a place can I book
Eventbrite's no tickets – I've just had a look!

Jesus Himself said that there was only one way
Other things do not give a 'pass' at the end of the day
There is no set charge to access this gate
Don't leave it too long or it may be too late
Ask the Lord Jesus to come into your heart
Then on the right road you have made a good start
He did so much for us when on the cross He died
He gave His life for millions who live so far and wide
A place in Heaven for us is in store
If we say, "Yes" – We can't ask for more
Be sure and book your ticket today
This important decision do not fail to delay
Our action most certainly guarantees a sure place
And you will see the Lord Jesus and look on His face